

PRIVACY POLICY

1. Basic concepts

1.1. Website is an Internet resource located on the Internet at <https://gamesensor.info/>, which is a collection of information (software) integrated into a software shell for use on a computer, enabling the User to view/read text, photos, and other actions on the computer, including the use of additional tools and services.

1.2. Developer is an individual or legal entity who has developed and placed the Website on the Internet, and uses it in accordance with the User Agreement and this Privacy Policy.

1.3. User is a natural person who has logged onto the Site, whether or not properly registered on the Site, acknowledges the User Agreement and the Privacy Policy of the Site, and uses the Site to obtain information or any other lawful activity.

1.4. Policy - this is the Developer's privacy policy.

2. General provisions

2.1. This Policy is an official template from the Developer and sets out how information about individuals using the Site is processed and protected.

2.2. The purpose of this Policy is to ensure that information about Users, including their personal data, is adequately protected from unauthorized access and disclosure.

2.3. Relationships relating to the collection, storage, distribution, and protection of information about Users are governed by this Policy, other official documents of the Developer, and applicable law.

2.4. The current version of the Policy, which is a public document, has been drafted by the Developer and is available to any Internet user by clicking on the "**Privacy Policy of the Website Developer**" hypertext link.

2.5. The Developer has the right to amend this Policy. When changes are made to this Policy, the Developer will notify Users by posting a new version of the Policy at the permanent address https://gamesensor.info/uploads/private\_policy.pdf.

These amendments shall become effective on the date of their publication on the Internet at: <https://gamesensor.info/uploads/terms.pdf>, unless another procedure for their effective date is provided for. Previous versions of this Policy shall be kept in the Developer's documentation archive.

2.6. This Policy has been drawn up and shall be used in accordance with the Game sensor website User Agreement, available on the Internet at <https://gamesensor.info/uploads/terms.pdf>.

2.7. By using the Site, the information, tools and features obtained through it, the User expresses their consent to the terms of the User Agreement and this Policy.

2.8. The User acknowledges that the Developer is not responsible for the confidentiality of information on third party websites and services. If the User moves from the Site to other resources, the terms of confidentiality of those resources and their copyright holders shall apply.

2.9. If the User does not agree with the terms of this Policy, use of the Site must be terminated immediately.

3. Terms of use of the website

3.1. By providing services for the use of the Site, the Developer, acting reasonably and in good faith, believes that the User

- has all necessary rights to enable it to use the Site;
- provides truthful information about yourself to the extent necessary for the use of the website;
- is aware that information posted as a result of using the Site may be available to other Users;
- is aware that certain types of information transmitted by it while using the Site may not be deleted by the User;

- has read this Policy, agrees to be bound by it and accepts the rights and obligations set out therein.

3.2. The Developer does not verify the accuracy of the information it receives (collects) about Users.

4. Purposes of information processing

The Developer processes information about Users, including their personal data, solely for the purpose of fulfilling the Developer's obligations to Users in relation to the use of the Site.

5. Composition of user information

The Developer processes information about Users, which includes:

5.1. Personal data of Users provided when creating an account to register and manage the Site, necessary to use the Site: name, email address.

5.2. The information provided by Users when using the Website and its tools and services, in particular the name and other data about themselves and their products.

5.3. Information, including financial information, received by the Developer as a result of User's requests when using the tools and features of the Site.

5.4. Information about subscriptions and the amount of funds transferred by Users to support the Site.

5.5. The data included in the cookies that are used on the Site in order to improve the interaction with Users.

5.6. Personal information about Users obtained from other sources, including third party suppliers / resellers, consumer data providers and aggregators, advertising networks, data analytics providers, internet service providers, operating systems and platforms, data brokers, business contact databases, social media, etc.

6. Processing of personal data of Users

6.1. Processing of personal data shall be based on the principles

- (a) The lawfulness of the purposes, methods of processing personal data and good faith;
- b) the compliance of the purposes of personal data processing with the purposes predetermined and stated when collecting the personal data and with the Developer's authorisation;
- c) the extent and nature of the personal data processed and the methods of processing personal data are consistent with the purposes of personal data processing;
- d) the inadmissibility of combining databases containing personal data for incompatible purposes.

6.2. Conditions and purposes of personal data processing

The Developer will process the User's personal data with the User's consent in order to provide services to the User for the use of the Site.

6.3. Collecting personal data

The User's personal data stipulated by Clauses 5.1 and 5.2 of this Policy is transferred to the Developer by the User. The User's consent to the transfer of their personal data to the Developer is given in the form of conclusive actions when creating an account on the Site and using the tools of the Site.

The fact of receipt by the Developer of information about Users as set out in sections 5.3-5.6 of this Policy, including personal data, is acknowledged and approved by Users.

6.4. Retention and use of personal data

Personal data of Users is stored only on electronic media and processed using automated systems.

6.5. Transmission of personal data

Users' personal data will not be disclosed to any third parties, except as expressly provided for in this Policy.

Provision of Users' personal data at the request of public authorities (local authorities) is carried out in the manner prescribed by law.

6.6. Destruction of personal data

The user's personal data is destroyed when

- the Developer deletes information posted by the User at the User's request;
- The Developer shall remove any information posted by the User in the cases set out in the User Agreement and in accordance with the law.

7. Rights and obligations of Users

7.1. Users shall have the right:

7.1.1. To have free access to information about themselves.

7.1.2. Independently make changes and corrections to your information about yourself using the tools on the Website, provided that such changes and corrections contain up-to-date and accurate information.

7.1.3. Demand that the Developer remove information about himself.

7.1.4. To receive information from the Developer concerning the processing of their personal data on request.

7.2. Users are obliged to use the Site only if they fully and unambiguously agree to this Policy.

8. Measures to protect information about Users

A Developer shall take technical, organisational and legal measures to protect Users' personal data from unauthorised or accidental access, destruction, modification, blocking, copying, distribution and other unlawful actions. A description of the relevant technical, organisational and legal measures is contained in the Developer's local regulations.

9. Limitation of the Policy

This Policy does not apply to the activities and internet resources of third parties.

The Developer shall not be liable for the actions of third parties who, as a result of using the Site, gain access to information about the User which, by the nature of the Application, is available to any Internet user. The Developer recommends that Users take a responsible approach to deciding how much information about themselves they post on the Site.

10. User appeals

10.1. Users are entitled to send their requests to the Developer, including requests regarding the use of their personal data under clause. 7.1.4 of this Policy to: info@gamesensor.info .

10.2. A request submitted by a User shall contain the following information

- a screenshot of the main identification document of the User or their representative;
- information confirming the User's participation in the relationship with the Developer (in particular, information about the loading of the Site, a screenshot of the Site, other data used by the User when using the Site).

10.3. The developer undertakes to consider and respond to the User's request within 30 days of receipt.

10.4. All correspondence received by the Developer from Users is restricted information and shall not be disclosed without the written consent of the User. Personal data and other information about the User who sent the request cannot be used without the User's express consent, except to respond to the subject of the received request or in cases expressly provided by law.
